

Spiritual Hospitality and Freedom

Professional Development Session

How do you encourage spiritual welcome and freedom within your culture and/or faith tradition?
What is it about your culture and/or faith tradition you would like others to understand and respect?

Spiritual Care Australia

Western Australian Branch

www.spiritualcareaustralia.org.au Association of Practitioners in Chaplaincy, Pastoral and Spiritual Care

Thursday 11 August 2016

3:00pm - 5:00pm
wine and cheese provided

Venue:
Midland Hospital
1 Clayton Street Midland
The Retreat on the Ground Floor

Please RSVP asap to:
felicity.shallcross@health.wa.gov.au
Free to SCA members; $10 for non members

Coming Up...a joint event between ACPEWA & SCA during Pastoral Care Week
Wednesday 26 October 2016 5pm-7pm
Spiritual Resilience:
Doubt, Humour and Lament

Photo Credit: Halle's beech woodlands near Brussels, Belgium with hyacinths in bloom. Stephanie Lecocq/EPA theguardian.com

Presented by a Panel from Aboriginal, Buddhist, Christian, Islamic & Jewish Spiritual & Cultural Traditions

Facilitator:

Greg Pfeiffer

Lutheran Minister St John's Lutheran Church

Speakers:

Dovid Freilich

Jewish Rabbi Perth Hebrew Congregation

Jameelah Pikos-Sallie

Muslim Teacher Australian Islamic College

Graham Irvine

Christian Minister Riverview Church

Kerri Colegate

Aboriginal Liaison Officer Midland Hospital

Hugh Sykes

Buddhist Society of WA Community Coordinator